<ul style="list-style-type: none"> By converting PDF documents into interactive worksheets on LiveWorksheets, you make the content easily accessible to learners in a digital format. Students can access the worksheets on their devices, complete them online, and submit their answers digitally. This eliminates the need for printing physical copies and allows for seamless remote learning or online assignments. As the PDF has author rights, you can't put it as public in Liveworksheets. But you can use it as private with your students.
